

I STRONGLY OPPOSE

This bill is nothing more than an attempt to control the messaging to the public regardless of what true scientific research says best practices are. Silencing the Oregon Forest Resources Institute will only promote distrust of government.