

Im in chronic pain and use alternative treatments for my pain managment. Making these treatments illegal would be detrimental to my care. Also it would be devastaing to thousands of providers and their clients.