

This bill is unacceptable as written and requires much more attention and exposure to all those who will be adversely affected.