

Committee members: During a time of a pandemic, spending funds for ethnic studies seems incredulous. Is there a need for such programs as it appears that there are ethnic studies already being taught! What could be the purpose, but to instill racial tensions in young minds, when we are all created equal.