

I am s Reiki practitioner my service is much needed and this seems to be something a legislator unless they completely know and understand the benefits of energy work do not need to be presenting this as something to control vote on. Or illuminate for that matter.