

I am against HB3065. We need to move on from freeways. It's been factually proven by countless studies that widening freeways does not ease congestion but rather contributes to even more air pollution from increased numbers of idling cars.

The money is better spent investing in public transportation infrastructure and street safety measures.