

We need transparency. Oregonians and students of our climate need to receive honest information, not dishonest campaigns that withhold fact based information from scientists. We need this bill passed now!