

I support amendment A4. We can't correct the problems inherent in our policing system until individuals can be held accountable for their actions.