

The fox is minding the chicken coop.

Among the thirteen members, OFRI's Board includes nine representatives of the forest products industry, one member representing small woodland owners and one representative of forest industry employees.

This is CRAZY. And immoral.

Let's finally put a stop to it.