

I want only science based information to be presented to our children or to the rest of the public. Our forests are vital to our ability to survive the climate crisis and to the lives of untold living things. The forest industry should not get to lobby and should not get to distort the information to please themselves. Please improve this process. Dell Goldsmith