

I oppose changes, this is a trade organization, not for preservationists, conservation has its place but should not be funded under this scheme.