

I support Amendment 4A with a recommendation to remove the "technical infractions" loophole. It's very important that the public, defense attorneys and defendants have access to these records. There can be no real oversight of our police force when so much information is not obtainable.