

Oregonians need our transportation dollars to be spent on public transit, improvements for cyclists and pedestrians, and public safety on existing and neglected roads, NOT on widening freeways. Our public health and the climate demand rational, careful use of these funds. There is no accountability for ODOT overruns.