

I strongly support this notification requirement. This will save many young lives in the future.