

I STRONGLY OPPOSE that this bill doesn't make any attempt to require best practices and the expertise in the subject. Instead, you require a broad area of individuals whom have special interest biases only at the option of the Board. It doesn't require public and parents input and I feel it deliberately excludes them in an attempt to hide the secret agenda to adopt critical race theory..