

I support this bill because of the environmental and ethical concerns of these contests. They can lead to overpopulation and starvation, as well as large amounts of suffering.