

Our expenses continue to go up as agents, including rent, payroll, and utilities. We need an increase in compensation to offset the costs of yearly pay increases and rent increases.