

I think it is very sad that the city of Portland wants to remove families from having fun on the river. People already have to drive there with their boats since a lot of them cant do it on Lake Oswego... why do you not want people to have fun?