

This is the one place that isn't hours away to do water sports near the city. I do not want this bill to pass. The launch sites will also be losing money and the people doing water sports are the ones paying the launch fees . Don't take the one perk of owning a boat away from us .