

Ballots need to be received by Election Day in order to be counted! Do not open up our elections to the extended possibility of fraud! If a person is serious about voting, they will do what it takes to meet current requirements. No change should be entertained.