

I strongly oppose any extension of time to allow ballots to be counted. This only opens up the election process to fraud by allowing additional ballots to be "found" that would change the election out come. We allow mail in voting so ther is no reason to extend the time line. Other than to commit fraud