

Why would you want to allow people to vote after election day? Look at all the BS that happened during this years presidential election because of this. Because some people are lazy and can't plan ahead, shouldn't delay the results for everyone else. Vote on time or your doesn't count! It's real simple! Even for democrats!