

Any allowance of time to count ballots would only open up the question of fraud. Currently we allow mail on ballots and ample time to mark and mail in your ballot. The only reason to add additional time is to "manufacture" votes to fraudulently influence an election.