

I oppose HB3291A. The right to know the result in a timely manner outweighs the right of procrastination.