

I oppose HB3291. Ballots should be counted on Election Day. If they are not, then let's go back to voting in person. There is no valid reason to count ballots received AFTER Election Day.