

Faith based organizations do a excellent job..places like My Father's House in Gresham work. They successfully rehab people. There is a huge need for housing for these people and I think it's money saved to help those who are getting people back in society.