

This age is too young for our children to vote, they are still in the process of finding who they are, absolutely ridiculous