

This sort of action is a threat to our democratic process. It is disgusting that Republicans are putting their party and personal power goals ahead of protecting our democracy. Allowing an invasion of our capital is despicable and must be stopped by expelling anyone who assists in those actions. I am sick and tired of Republicans interfering with our democratic processes and blocking needed legislation.