

Mike Nearman should be ashamed of himself. His behavior, as well as his attitudes before and after the event in question indicate that he has lost his moral compass and has fundamentally misunderstood his role as a public servant. He is proven that he is unfit to serve.