

Rep Nearman needs to be held entirely accountable for his actions. Not only should he be removed from office, but he should be criminally prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. Our state representatives and employees need to be protected from unstable individuals like this.