

I meet and speak with people daily from all over the country and Oregon is rapidly becoming a laughing stock for its extreme positions on every issue. It's embarrassing. Even the Californians are shaking their heads. Everywhere there are Help Wanted signs so there is no longer any excuse for people to plead paucity. Let's get this state off of subsidies and back to a normal, working economy. Good Lord!