

This is absurd, if people are breaking rules associated with towed sports you don't ban the entire sport, you deal with it through education and enforcement. The marine board has already made rules to only allow towed sports north of the hawthorn bridge and this is a fine solution.