

I support this bill. You have two choices right now: 1) reduce the size of wakes through passage of this bill this year or 2) kick the can down the road and put future legislators in the position of having to eliminate all wake-producing craft once the riverbank is destroyed.