

We need to spend our energy and time on teaching the basics to school children. That seems to be getting lost along with the children that have had very little education in the last year. As we have had the state closed for a year this is not something we need to spend money on at this time.