

I write in support of HB 2938. There are very few sensible reasons to discriminate in the hire/fire world of business due to age. The positives are evident in ability, knowledge, and instilled drive to be a great employee. The "new" middle age is 55, thanks to medical advances. The business world needs to adapt and profit from those real improvements.