

I stand by this quote "Just because someone doesn't like something, doesn't mean it can be prohibited." To go down a path of prohibiting and banning things just because some people don't like it, or disagree with it, is not only wrong and divisive, it goes against everything our country stands for.