

In the past I have seen an optometrist, but I understand their training is limited to prescribing glasses. By no means are they trained sufficiently to perform surgery. I would never allow an optometrist to do any sort of surgery on my eyes.