

I am 100 percent against this bill. Our forefathers did their best to keep the population of predators in check for a reason. Our wildlife and livestock are going to suffer from this.