

With PSU being very supportive of parent-students, I think sharing our demographic as parents will help the university draw in more parents and support us better.