

I support for the measure for those who live such a long long ways away.

But the legislature must now be open to the public for testimony.

We cannot have this shut down of we the people's business, rights and duty to have oversight over the government.