

I regard access to affordable, quality health care as a human right. As an Oregonian, I support the Oregon Constitutional amendment establishing obligation of the state to ensure every resident of the state access to cost-effective, clinically appropriate health care.