

Legislation should be directed at criminal activity and not at putting more restrictions on law abiding gun owners and citizens.