

I absolutely support legislation to prevent ANY sale of a firearm to ANY individual when we do not have a mechanism in place to ensure that they are authorized to own a firearm. I actually cannot believe that this is even something up for legislation, this should already be a law.