

I support this bill - citizens need a path forward to holding police accountable and this would help us get closer to a place where justice can't be circumvented.