

It is very important that anyone buying a firearm has to successfully pass the background check. This will make Oregon safer for our children and for all of us!