

All steps need to be taken to ensure that firearms/weapons aren't sold to individuals who should not or cannot legally possess one. So many are killed with guns. We need to be more responsible. I see no reason three days (or more) would make a difference.