

I am a female and this goes against my 2nd amendment rights. It's unconstitutional. This will have no impact on criminals or keeping our people safe. Accessing health records is a violation of HIPPA, my constitutional rights as an AMERICAN and gives government more power to access our health care.