

The cost of doing business has increased every year since I have been a liquor agent. The added compensation will help us continue to offer competitive wages as well as fund employee benefits.