

This bill restricts law-abiding citizens from being able to protect themselves from those who do not follow the law. The way to lower gun violence is not by removing the means to protect oneself from it. This law only hurts Oregonians and helps criminals.