

Getting diagnosed with multiple sclerosis as an adjunct professor immediately became a nightmare. This bill would make a huge difference for me and so many other instructors.